

CLASS RECORDING POLICY

Approved by Student Services Committee: March 21, 2022

Approved by the Law Faculty: April 6, 2022

Classes may only be recorded (1) with the permission of the instructor or (2) in accordance with an accommodation determined by the University Office of Disability Services.

A student desiring that a class be recorded or seeking access to a recording because of a disability may contact the University's Office of Disability Services. A student desiring that a class be recorded or seeking access to a recording for any other reason may contact the instructor or refer to the instructor's recording policy.

No one may access, reproduce, or share a recording with any other person without the instructor's written consent, except as otherwise required by University policy.

---